

LITTLE CREATURES

young children
imaginary adventures
thoughtful films

For Immediate Release:

Spirit Ship Trailer Screening at Festivals in NYC and The Netherlands

The trailer from the first official film by Little Creatures Film Company, Spirit Ship (10 min, HD, color, 2009) will be screened at the Red Hook International Film Festival in Brooklyn, NY and at the Cinekid for Professionals Screening Club in Amsterdam, the Netherlands. The US screening will be at 2pm on Sunday, October 4, at 499 Van Brunt St. in Red Hook, Brooklyn, and at the Dutch festival the trailer will screen at various times between October 21 - 23, 2009, at Flexbar (Westergsfabriekterrein), Pazzanistraat 1, Amsterdam.

Spirit Ship, 2008-09. © Little Creatures Films

Film Synopsis

Through a series of events, particularly the discovery of many strange and haunting personal artifacts strewn along the sea shore, three children eventually come to see beyond the living world, into the spirit realm, where three young victims of a shipwreck are also wandering. The story takes place against the backdrop of several untouched historic and natural environments along the Red Hook waterfront.

Links

www.littlecreaturesfilms.com/spiritship.html

<http://www.redhookfilmfest.com>

<http://www.cinekid.nl/en/professionals>

Contact: Kristin B. Eno, Director, Little Creatures www.littlecreaturesfilms.com
kristin@littlecreaturesfilms.com 347-564-0213